

Armor and Cavalry Regimental Guide

Office of the Chief of Armor

As of: 18 May 2023

MEMORANDUM FOR ARMOR AND CAVALRY SOLDIERS

SUBJECT: Armor and Cavalry Regimental Guide

1. The Armor Force remains the true Combat Arm of Decision throughout the full spectrum of conflict. The force is motivated, professional, intelligent, and technically and tactically competent. As the Armor Force and the US Army continue to transform, the importance of esprit de corps and tradition moves with us. The esprit de corps and teamwork afforded by the Regimental System will remain a critical feature in the cohesion of the Force.
2. As Chief of Armor, I fully support the Regimental System and its components. Commitment to the Regimental System not only benefits the units, but also benefits all Soldiers by connecting them with Armor's proud heritage.
3. This supplement was developed to inform Armor leaders and Soldiers with information on the Regimental System. It outlines all the aspects of the Regimental System needed to provide background information on the structure and association within the regiment. By using this supplement, all members of the Armor Force will greatly enhance their pride in unit and sense of belonging.
4. For questions or to submit updates to the unit honorary members, please contact the Office of the Chief of Armor, email: usarmy.moore.mcoe.mbx.armor-ocoa@army.mil.

MICHAEL J. SIMMERING
Brigadier General, U.S. Army
Chief of Armor

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

1. General

a. References

- (1) Army Regulation (AR) 870-21

b. Objective: The intent of the Armor and Cavalry Regimental Guide is to provide information on current policies and procedures regarding the Regimental System for Armor Soldiers (active and reserve component).

c. Purpose

(1) Enhance combat effectiveness through a framework that provides the opportunity for affiliation.

(2) Develop loyalty and commitment.

(3) Foster an expanded sense of belonging.

(4) Improve unit esprit de corps.

(5) Institutionalize the warfighting ethos.

(6) Connect leaders and Soldiers with those that came before them.

d. Guidelines

(1) Allows combat arms Soldiers to select the regiment of choice. Soldiers can change their affiliation at any time.

(2) Soldiers will be affiliated with only one regiment at a time.

(3) Permits no limit to the number of Soldiers who can be affiliated with a regiment.

(4) Provides the potential for recurring assignments within a regiment.

(5) Provides the opportunity to emphasize the history, customs, and traditions of the regiment.

(6) Provides structure within the regiment.

2. Regimental Responsibilities

a. General

(1) There are 12 recognized Armor Regiments and 24 Cavalry Regiments in the Regimental system for the active Armor force. These numbers include one Armor and two Cavalry Regiments for the training base at the United States Army Armor School (See Appendix

A-1).

(2) There are five recognized Armor Regiments and 26 Cavalry Regiments in the Regimental system for the Army National Guard (See Appendix A-2).

(3) The lowest numbered CONUS-based battalion of the regiment will be designated regimental home-base having regimental responsibility and will maintain the regimental colors and memorabilia. When all battalions are OCONUS, the lowest numbered OCONUS battalion or squadron assumes regimental responsibility and maintains regimental colors and memorabilia (See Appendix A). Exceptions to the home-base battalion concept are 2CR, 3CR, and 11 ACR; Regimental HQs will assume regimental responsibility.

b. Chief of Armor

(1) Directs the Office of the Chief of Armor to coordinate and oversee the program.

(2) Issues guidance to the Director of the Office of the Chief of Armor for the implementation of the Honorary program for the Armor and Cavalry force.

(3) Encourages use of the honorary program through contact with Division Commanders.

c. Director, Office of the Chief of Armor

(1) Develops and publishes the Armor and Cavalry Honorary program policy.

(2) Advises the Chief of Armor on regimental matters concerning the total Armor force.

(3) Tracks deactivations and activation of total Armor force units.

(4) Assists units with information concerning regimental memorabilia, colors, historical items, and the honorary program, and handles actions as appropriate.

(5) Maintains biographies of HCORs and HSGMORs, as well as addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses of Honoraries.

d. Commander, Regimental Home-Base Battalion

(1) Maintain custody of the regiment heraldic items including the regimental colors, and any historical objects belonging to the regiment.

(2) Recommend and provide support to the Honorary Colonel, Honorary Warrant Officer, Honorary Sergeant Major of the Regiment (HSGMOR), Distinguished Members, and Honorary Members consistent with guidance provided in Army Regulation 870-21.

(3) Maintain contact with regimental/unit associations.

(4) Appoint a unit level regimental adjutant as an additional duty in order to maintain the unit's regimental program and handle actions as appropriate.

(5) Consults with other Battalion/Squadron commanders of the regiment to reach a consensus for the nomination of HCOR and HSGMOR.

(6) Submits all HCOR and HSGMOR nominations to the Office of the Chief of Armor, email: usarmy.moore.mcoe.mbx.armor-ocoa@army.mil.

e. Commander, Armor Battalions and Cavalry Squadrons

(1) Submits all DMOR and HMOR nominations to the Office of the Chief of Armor, email: usarmy.moore.mcoe.mbx.armor-ocoa@army.mil.

3. Points of Contact

a. The following points of contact may be used for assistance and as sources for unit history and heraldry.

(1) Robert S. Cameron, Armor School Historian, robert.s.cameron.civ@army.mil.

(2) U.S. Army Center of Military History, usarmy.mcnair.cmh.mbx.answers@army.mil.

THE HONORARY PROGRAM

1. General

a. Purpose. The purpose of the honorary program is to provide a link with history for today's Soldiers through Honorary Colonels of the Regiment (HCOR), Honorary Sergeants Major of the Regiment (HSGMOR), Distinguished Members of the Regiment (DMOR) and Honorary Members of the Regiment (HMOR).

b. Mission. The primary mission of the Soldiers holding honorary positions is to perpetuate the history and traditions of the regiment, thereby enhancing unit morale and esprit de corps. They provide insight into the future by way of the past. The HCOR and HSGMOR are credible sources for explaining and demonstrating the Army values. They lived through our brilliant history and can impart their knowledge and experiences.

c. Nominations

(1) Nominations for HCOR, HSGMOR, DMOR and HMOR may be received from several sources including regimental associations, active Army commanders, incumbent HCORs, HSGMORs and commanders within the regiment. (See Appendix C)

(2) The responsibility for consolidating HCOR and HSGMOR nominations rests with the regimental home-base commander, who reaches a consensus with the other battalion commanders of the regiment. The home-base commander then forwards nominations to the Office of the Chief of Armor at Fort Moore, Georgia.

(3) The responsibility for submitting DMOR and HMOR nominations rests with all armor battalion and cavalry squadron commanders.

d. Selection and Appointment

(1) The Chief of Armor provides the signed appointment certificates.

(2) OCOA Submits two certificates for signature, one for the HCOR, HSGMOR, DMOR or HMOR and one for the unit or regimental headquarters.

2. Honorary Colonel of the Regiment

a. Qualifications and Requirements

(1) The HCOR must be a retired commissioned officer in the rank of COL or above with former service in a unit of the regiment. Exceptions may be granted for medal of valor recipients.

(2) The HCOR's tour of duty is for three years. However, consecutive three-year tours may be granted without limitations of time, based on respective HCOR request and concurrence from the respective regiment, and the Chief of Armor.

(3) An HCOR cannot serve as HCOR for more than one regiment simultaneously.

b. Duties. There are several ways in which an HCOR can benefit the regiment. Some of these include:

- (1) Oversees other honorary position programs and their maintenance.
- (2) Serves as a liaison between the regiment and regimental associations.
- (3) Imparts Army values through attending and/or speaking at regimental functions, command ceremonies, or awards ceremonies.
- (4) Assists in professional development programs for the regiment, its officers and NCOs.
 - (a) Speaks on the regiment's history and traditions at dining-ins or similar functions.
 - (b) Chairs or presides over regimental committees.
- (5) Maintains contact between CONUS and OCONUS battalions and squadrons of the regiment.
- (6) Maintains communication with higher headquarters, lower units, and the Office of the Chief of Armor.
- (7) Regularly meets with the Commander of senior headquarters.

c. HCOR appointees will be appointed as DMOR simultaneously with their appointment of HCOR.

3. Honorary Sergeant Major of the Regiment

a. Qualifications and Requirements: The qualifications, requirements, and length of tour are the same as the HCOR except that the HSGMOR is a retired NCO in the rank of SFC or above. Exceptions may be granted for medal of valor recipients.

b. Duties and Responsibilities

- (1) Assists the HCOR in perpetuating the history of the regiment by maintaining an honorary program.
- (2) Executes many aspects listed under the duties of the HCOR.
- (3) Imparts Army values through attending and/or speaking at regimental functions, command ceremonies, or awards ceremonies.
- (4) Speaks on the regiment's history and traditions at dining-ins or similar functions.

c. HSGMOR appointees will be appointed as DMOR simultaneously with their appointment of HSGMOR.

4. Distinguished Member of the Regiment

a. Qualifications and Requirements

(1) DMORs are individuals of the same distinguished stature as the HCOR or HSGMOR, but may include active Army, USAR, ARNG, retired officers, and warrant officers, enlisted Soldiers and civilians who have served in the regiment.

(2) The term of a DMOR is indefinite with no limit on the number of individuals who may be appointed. Posthumous awards of DMOR are authorized.

b. Duties and Responsibilities: DMORs are appointed to supplement and support the efforts of the HCOR or HSGMOR.

5. Honorary Member of the Regiment

a. HMORs can be Soldiers, spouses and individuals who contributed to or provided a service to the regiment but are not members of the regiment.

b. The term for HMORs is indefinite, and there is no limit to the number of individuals who may be appointed.

6. Funding and Support

a. There are no funds to support this program. Reimbursement of incidental costs such as telephone bills, supplies or publications cost is not authorized.

b. Reimbursement of travel expenses for support of HCOR or HSGMOR, to support regimental functions may be from the unit's funds or at the expense of the respective Honorary Colonel or Sergeant Major.

c. Invitational Travel Orders may be issued by the organization or activity requesting the presence of the Honorary member at regimental functions.

7. Locating HCORs, HSGMORs, DMORs and HMORs. Finding candidates for holding honorary positions can be a difficult job. A unit must develop a list of candidates that are available. In some cases, candidates can be readily found from researching local sources.
