

68TH ARMOR REGIMENT

The colors, blue and white, associate the organization with infantry. The lion symbolizes the power of a tank regiment. The motto translates to "With Great Speed." The distinctive unit insignia was originally approved for 68th Infantry Regiment March 23, 1937. It was redesignated for 68th Armored Regiment Sept. 18, 1942. It was redesignated for 68th Tank Battalion Nov. 22, 1943. The insignia was redesignated for 68th Medium Tank Battalion Aug. 29, 1952. It was redesignated for 68th Armor Regiment Nov. 15, 1957. It was amended to update the description Nov. 17, 2010.