

On the weekend of 27-28 April, the doors of the Tankodrome will open be for visitors from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. 200 historic armored fighting vehicle and anti-tank weapons from 1916 today are present, as well as several modern equipment displays courtesy of the U.S. Army Maneuver Center of Excellence here at Fort Moore. Food trucks will be on site to provide refreshment as you learn about the history of U.S. Armor and meet your U.S. Army.

The 316th Cavalry Brigade will be hosting a live fire demonstration on Saturday the 27th, at 4:00 PM. Featuring Abrams Main Battle Tanks, Bradley Fighting Vehicles, and more, this is an event you do not want to miss! Please understand that the live fire demo is subject to delay or cancellation due to unsafe weather conditions. And make sure to bring hearing protection!

Access to Fort Moore requires a valid U.S. Department of Defense ID or a Fort Moore visitors pass. Information on passes can be found at: <https://www.moore.army.mil/competitions/spectators.html>
